2. Post-Public Meeting Debrief - the Committee discussed a range of observations and lessons learned from the first meeting, this included:

- There is interested in finding ways to increase engagement with our minority populations
 - Based on public comments during the meeting there is interest in reaching out to the transgender community to better understand concerns that were expressed. Matt and Jessieca will be reaching out.
 - We discussed how we might invite others from the community to work with us more
- We discussed the importance of confidential comments and the need to draft a process and policy related to it. Josh will follow up to draft something.
- We discussed the need to focus Facebook comments on the committee's work and not to read off all back-and-forth comments if they were not relevant to our work.
- We discussed the public's perception of our role regarding issues of defunding the police department
- We again discussed our work plan timeline and future milestones coming up in early January
- Josh will work to get information from our first meeting posted via Facebook

We adjourned at 7:15 PM.
