2. Public meeting discussion.

The Committee discussed the technical plans for the our first public meeting and the need to shift the date to November 5, 2020 to ensure that we will be able to promote the event and have the technical plans in place.

3. Meeting with other reform committees

Ted has talked with several other police reform committees in the County to compare how they are approaching the process. He felt that we were doing well in terms of the milestones we've met already and our current work plan. He will continue to touch base with other committees as our work proceeds.

We adjourned at 7 pm
